Children enrolled in the visual art classes will be met between 8:45 - 9:00 a.m. at the School Street turn-around area as indicated on the map above. (PLEASE NO EARLIER.) Art Education students will escort the children to CVA for their art classes and back to the School Street turn-around or to drama classes, if enrolled.

Children enrolled only in creative drama will meet in the Centennial East Lobby between 10:45 - 10:55 a.m. and be escorted to their drama classes by the staff. They will be escorted back to the Centennial East Lobby at the end of class.

To insure the children's safety when picking them up - a parent, guardian, or other adult will be required to sign a form before a child can be released.

WE APPRECIATE IT WHEN YOU PICK UP YOUR CHILD ON TIME.

2009 Saturday Creative Arts

Presented by Illinois State University, College of Fine Arts, School of Art and School of Theatre

The Saturday Creative Arts Program classes will meet: September 12, 19, 26 & October 3 and 10.

VISUAL ARTS: Join us as we creatively express individual thoughts and ideas using a variety of art materials and processes as well as learn about art and artists from various countries and cultures. During the last art class on October 10th, parents and friends are invited to observe and/or participate. Art works created by the children throughout the program will be on display from 9:00 - 10:50 a.m.

CREATIVE DRAMA: Join us for Saturdays filled with adventure this fall as we explore creative drama! In creative drama we will use our imagination, senses, concentration, voice and body to improvise from appropriate stories, poems, legends and world events. Parents and friends are invited to observe and/or participate in the last drama class on Saturday, October 10th.
